

Kenya Bureau of Standards
Standards for Quality life

POLICY STATEMENT

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

Kenya Bureau of Standards (KEBS) is committed to protect and promote employee health and safety and to take every precaution, reasonable in the circumstances, to ensure that the workplace is safe and healthy for employees, clients and the general public.

The management is committed to comply with applicable Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) legislation and implement measures to eliminate and minimize the risk of occupational injury and illness in order to improve productivity while continuously seeking opportunities to improve adherence to the principles of compliance, incident reduction hazard prevention and continual improvement.

This function will be integrated in KEBS management principles and activities and will therefore be part of the management activities and responsibilities. All divisions, departments and regions shall adhere to this policy and ensure compliance.

KEBS shall review its OHS objectives annually to ensure that they are in tandem with emerging OHS concerns for the purpose of continual improvement.

Esther Ngari
Managing Director

28/07/2025

Date: